

Daily Appeal.

MEMPHIS.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1859.

Largest Circulation in the City.

Reading Matter on Every Page.

The Official Journal of the City.

OUR OWNERS.

First Page.—Speech of Mr. Morgan,

Treasor, before the St. Louis Pacific Railroad

Commissioners.—"The Revolution in Hay!"

"The Palms Tore."

FOOTER PAGE.—Poetry.—"To Master C—"

"Richard British Sheridan."

"Death of the Watch Clock Maker."

"Neapolitan Dances."

"The Late Murder and Bank

ROBBERY in JACKSON."

The West Tennessee News of yesterday gives a full account of the terrible tragedy in

Jackson, another well-known proceeding of the citizens, which we publish below.

THE HOMESTEAD BILL.

The following is a copy of the Homestead

Bill, introduced by the House of Representatives, February 1.

PRODUCE AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

NORTH SOUTH COMMERCIAL SHIPS.

EXCHANGE BUILDINGS.

ST. LOUIS, Mo.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION ATTACHED TO THE EXHIBITION OF 1859.

AVALON.

VALUABLE PROPERTY.

CITY & COUNTRY!

BY G. W. HANNA.

REAL STATE AGENT.

35 MAIN STREET.

17 ACRES VACANT FROM THE FIFTH STREET.